

NO SOLICITING

(unless you're selling girl scout cookies)

We're sure you're a nice person with a worthy charity, ideas to share, or great products to sell but please DO NOT ring the door bell or knock.

We already give to charity, support great ideas, and search out services we need on the internet.

Have a great day!

(If you're a friend or neighbor just stopping by to say hello, we'd love to see you.)
